

契約書

The Agreement for Mutual Delegate Between Japanese and Korean HDF Society for Hemodiafiltration

1. Purpose
 - ① These rules have been established to evolve Japanese and Korean Society of hemodiafiltration by delegating representatives to annual meetings of each society in order to exchange expert knowledge.
 - ② In order to maintain eternal relationships, the two societies have entered into an agreement for the management of expenses.
2. Meetings and frequency of delegation
 - ① These rules are applied to the annual HDF meeting of each society, and not effective to any other meeting.
 - ② Each society delegates representatives to the other society every two years and vice versa.
 - ③ The number of the delegating representatives should be discussed each time between the two societies.
3. Handling of expenses
 - ① The guest society is responsible for the payment of travel expenses of the representatives.
 - ② The host society is responsible for the reservation and payment of hotel expenses.
4. Honorariums and compensation
 - ① Honorariums should not be paid for lectures in any kind.
 - ② These rules do not apply to any contracts made between the guest society and its delegating representatives.
5. Certification
 - ① The host society will provide certification letters to the representatives for their participation.
6. Rule Enforcement
 - ① These rules are effective from the 1st day of January, 2010.

June 4, 2010 Seoul, Korea

President of Japanese Society for HDF
Hideki Kawanishi

President of Korean Society for HDF
Hyun Chul Kim

契約締結, Seoul 2010

